I take unusual, poorly defined problems and create distinctive working tools. I build intelligent tools, creative web applications, and automated systems from concept through deployment, combining production discipline with an artist's eye. Before this, a decade in film running prop departments: budgets, crews, vendors, and deadlines on features and television.

In both film and tech, my strengths are the same: I consider what could go wrong and how, and plan for every outcome. I solve problems creatively. And I believe you can do anything you can imagine using technology.

PROJECTS

RIP · URL

TypeScript · Val Town · LLM APIs

An autonomous weekly publication (ripurl.val.run). A state machine finds a dead website, proves the URL is dead, gathers evidence and an archived screenshot, writes the obituary, and fact-checks every draft.

crierbaby

JavaScript · Cloudflare Workers · vision AI

A self-hosted Bluesky photo scheduler. A vision model drafts captions and alt text, repeats are caught, and nothing posts without approval. 25 automated tests, including retries that never double-post.

Flatpack

JavaScript · Obsidian Templater

Merges an Obsidian vault into one document, replacing repeated embeds with pointers. Cut a real 104,000-line export to 9,700 with nothing lost.

Creative Browser Tools

JavaScript · Canvas

A palette maker that pulls colors from a photo, and an image degrader that simulates resampling, color reduction, chroma bleed, and JPEG generation loss.
